

CAPTAIN BABCOCK DEAD.

Still another old kamaaina has breathed his last. Captain William Babcock died at his home, Piikoi and Lunalilo streets, at 10:30 o'clock last night in the presence of the members of his family and Dr. McKibbin, the attending physician. The cause of death was old age. Deceased was born in New London, Conn., in 1813 and was therefore 83 years of age. In the early forties he came to Honolulu and was for many years identified with the whaling industry. Retiring from this business he became a pilot at this port which position he held until a few years ago. Deceased leaves two children, John Babcock and Mrs. F. F. Lyman. The funeral takes place from the late residence at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

You are worn out, tired, can't put the energy you desire into your duties. Well, then, you must try something that will overcome this feeling and restore you to perfect health.

Pleasant

From childhood we are taught to respect the curative features of herbs. Our grandmothers used them, and were, as a rule, versed in the art of preparing remedies from various plants.

as

We have a preparation that is of the old-fashioned type—purely vegetable, made of herbs with wine. For a general tonic to produce vigor and strength, you cannot find a better one.

Wine.

For malarial disorders, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, loss of energy, it is a true panacea.
